A TOUCH OF CORNISH CLASS

Holidaying at home is here to stay for 2010 but forget roughing it under canvas – Cornwall gets a slick new address from February when the Cornwall Hotel & Spa Estate (01726 874050/www.thecornwall.com) opens near Tregorrick and the beautiful beaches of the east Cornish coast. Set in 43 acres of secluded parkland, the hotel will have 65 rooms in an original 19th-century manor house, with another 56 woodland rooms, all with panoramic views over the gardens. There will be two restaurants, the luxurious Clearing Spa and an infinity pool, with beautiful Porthpean Beach two miles away. Doubles from £133, B&B (two sharing).
