

STONEFIELD CASTLE HOTEL

MEETINGS & EVENTS

WELCOME TO STONEFIELD CASTLE HOTEL

Stonefield Castle was built in 1837 and illustrates the very best of Scottish Baronial architecture with much of its original furnishings, wood panelling, ornate ceilings and marble fireplaces still to be enjoyed.

Standing amidst 60 acres of woodland gardens which lead to the foreshore of Loch Fyne. Only 2 miles from the idyllic fishing village of Tarbert, one of the most attractive villages in the West of Scotland.

Stonefield has hosted many conferences and special events over the years and with our experienced staff and the best of everything expected in a property of this class, you may be assured that your function is in safe hands.

Inspire your delegates - choose a venue where they can really focus on your goals!

THE DRAWING ROOM

This is a magnificent ground floor room with a beautiful period fireplace and original high vaulted ceilings. The large windows provide plenty of natural daylight and overlook our 60 acres of woodland gardens. Patio doors open onto the Woodland Terrace overlooking Loch Fyne.

The Drawing Room can accommodate up to 50 delegates theatre-style, but also as a flexible venue, can be used for private dining or as boardroom-style. WiFi is available in this room.

LOCH FYNE RESTAURANT AND CASTLE GROUNDS

Famed for its 60 acres of gardens, which host one of the finest collections of rhododendrons and azaleas to be found in Britain, with rare examples from around the world.

The grounds offer many different areas, from gorges and rivers to woodland and seashore. The ideal venue for management training, teambuilding and outward bound-style courses.

Our restaurant is a stunning venue for larger meetings and offers spectacular views over our gardens and Loch Fyne. It can accommodate around 100 delegates theatre-style, though further numbers may be possible by arrangement.

SMALL MEETINGS AND PRIVATE DINING

The Library is bursting with period style and available for that more intimate venue of up to 8 persons boardroom-style or private dining.

For that smaller meeting or training venue the Boardroom is the perfect place for your needs for around 10 delegates.
